

God Has Two Questions to Ask You...

A Going-to-Heaven "Check-List"

Got a pencil? Please get one.
This check-list is based on two questions:

#1 If you were to die,
would you go to Heaven?

- I think I would go to Heaven.
- I hope I would go to Heaven.
- I know I would go to Heaven.
- I'm sure I want to go to Heaven.
- I'm not sure I would go to Heaven.
- I don't know if I would go to Heaven.

You may have checked several answers.
That's why there is a second question.

The second question is a little longer, and you should only check ONE answer...

(Read them all before you make your one selection.)

#2 If you stood before God at the entrance of Heaven and God asked you, "Why should I let you into My Heaven?" (and you could only give ONE answer) what would you say?

Remember to read all of the following list before making one, and only one, selection...

- I've tried to do my best and to do what is right.
- I've been baptized.
- I've been a church member.
- I've treated others fairly.
- I've kept at least most of the ten commandments.
- I've trusted Jesus as my Savior and... (plus some of the areas on this list).
- I've done more good things than bad.
- I've given money to charitable and needy causes.

- I've trusted Christ, who paid for my salvation in full.
  - I've kept the golden rule -- treating others equal to, or better than, myself.
  - I've taught a Sunday School class.
  - I've been a person of prayer.
  - I've asked God to save me several times.
  - I've done _____
- _____
- _____.

Did you check one?
There is only one
right answer.
Biblically speaking (and God wrote
the Book on it!),
salvation is of the Lord.

The answers to the second question can be grouped into two categories: (1) What Man Did, and (2) What God Did. Only one answer would be under group (2) What God Did, and that is the only correct biblical answer because salvation is of the Lord. The only correct answer is, "I've trusted Christ, who paid for my salvation in full." Even, "I've trusted Jesus as my Savior and..." is not correct. Why? Because it adds man's works.

It is not our works, but His that saves us. It is not our righteous acts, but His righteousness that gets us into Heaven. God paid for our salvation in the righteous death of His Son, Jesus Christ. The wages of sin is death (separation from God, who is holy). Christ, in His death, provided us with the only righteous payment possible. The Bible says, "For by grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast.", Ephesians 2:8, 9.

Salvation is of the Lord because righteousness is of the Lord. Only His righteousness can blot out your sins and give you eternal life with God in Heaven. If you are interested in the details of "how you can obtain His righteousness and get to Heaven", check out the next page...
